Wednesday, July 21. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated July 21.

Madrid, July 3.

BY Letters from Ceuta of the 22d of June we have an Account, that the Moors having been a long time preparing a Mine, the Governour caus'd another to be sprung, which ruin'd all their Work, and caus'd great Disorder among them. They prepar'd another however, but it happen'd to be over one which the Governour had caus'd to be made, and which was ready to be charg'd: He caus'd it to be fir'd so opportunely, while they were working upon theirs, that besides blowing it all up, it ruin'd divers Works which they had made, and kill'd a good Number of Men, as 'twas easie to be observe by the Time they spent in carrying off their dead. After this Mine was fir'd, the Grenadiers threw such a Number of Genadoes among the Moors who were in the advanc'd Posts, that they oblig'd them to abandon them.

Madrid, July 3. The 27th Instant arriv'd an Express from Rome, with Letters from the Princes of Piombino; in which she desires, that the Sequestration laid upon her Estate in the Island of Elba by the Governour of Porto-Longone, may be taken off; because the Germans are dislodg'd from thence: 'Tis believ'd the King will grant her Request, because she has constantly adher'd to his Interest. The same Express brought Letters also from the Marquis de los Balbafes Viceroy of Sicily, in which he gives a sorrowful Account of the Behaviour of the Inhabitants of Palermo on the arrival of the Succours from Spain, and desires with great Earnestness to be discharg'd from his Viceroyship. Our Ministers having taken into Examination the Proceedings of the Viceroy on that Occasion, have disapprov'd them, and given their Opinion that the Advice of M. Mahoni to reduce the refractory by Force of Arms to Obedience, ought to have been follow'd; because the giving Way to the Humour of the Populace on this Occasion, cannot but encourage and confirm them in thier good Affection for the Archduke. M. Mesnager is on his Departure for France: 'Tis reported, that the new Regulations that Minister has drawn up for the Trade to the West Indies are approv'd by our Court, and will be put in Execution at a proper Season: The Articles of that Regulation are not yet known, but 'tis pretended they are all for the Advantage of the Spaniards, and that the Traffick which foreign Nations shall drive to the West Indies shall pass through the Hands of the Spaniards. 'Tis the general Opinion, that the Gallies will not arrive in Europe till the End of this Year.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 24.

Vienna, July 11. Last Saturday the Bride of the King of Portugal was carry'd by the Empress-Dowager to the Nunnery of St. Clara, where all the Imperial Family were entertain'd at Dinner: Thence they all went to St. Stephen's Church, and afterwards to Leopoldstad on the Danube, whence they went by Water to Cloyster-Neuburg, whither the Portuguese Ambassador and some other Ministers went the Day before. Sunday pass'd in Devotions. On Monday at 7 in the Evening the Marriage-Ceremony of the King of Portugal with the Archduchess Maria Anna was Solemniz'd in the same Manner, as that of the Queen of Spain, except only that the Pope's Dispensation (because the Bridegroom and Bride are Sisters Children) was first read. The Bride being dress'd in the Spanish Fashion, was led up to the Altar by the Empress and the Empress-Dowager: As she walk'd up the Countess of Brenner, formerly her Governess, carry'd her Train; as did the Countess of Thaur when she came back: The Ministers had enough to do to reconcile the Dispute between these two Ladies (who each claim'd the said Honour singly) by finding out that Expedient. The Ceremony being over, a triple Discharge was made of 36 Cannon, and the Emperour led the Queen of Portugal his Sister to her Coach, in which the Countess of Thaur sat with her: The Ladies of her Household follow'd in three Coaches, and the Portuguese Ambassador with his Retinue rid before, over a Bridge of Boats to Korn-Neuburg; where their Imperial Majesties with the Archduchesses made a Visit Yesterday to her Portuguese Majesty, and were publickly Feasted. The Portuguese Ambassador gave an Entertainment at the same Time to all the Imperial Ministers, and after Dinner the Queen took her Leave of her Mother, Brother, and Sisters. Last Night the Emperour and Empress return'd to the Palace of Favorita; but the Empress Dowager with the 2 Archduchesses return'd to Cloyster-Neuburg, intending to accompany the Queen a little Way on her Journey to Day, to which end the Emperour also rid out early this Morning with a small Retinue. 'Tis the Talk that a Muscovite Ambassador is expected here, to ask the youngest Archduchess in Marriage for the Prince of Muscovy, on a Promise that her Household shall be compos'd of Germans, and that she shall live after the German Manner. The Emperour presented the Ambassador of Portugal with his Picture set with Diamonds. Her Portuguese Majesty will take her Journey through Bohemia and Saxony, the nearest Way to Holland, and thence pass over to England, there to take Shipping for Lisbon. The Danish Troops, and Prince Eugene's Regiment of Dragoons, are now on the March from Bavaria to serve in Hungary. The Emperour has ratify'd the Resolution of the Diet of the Empire for admitting the Elector of Hanover into the Electoral College. We hear from Bavaria, that a great Conspiracy has been newly discover'd there, in which several of the principal Persons of that Country are concern'd: Whereupon Count Herbeville, being inform'd of it in time, has taken necessary Precautions for the Security of Munich.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated July 24.

From the Army commanded by the Elector of Hanover, encamp'd at Muhlberg, July 17. The Grenadiers of Swabia have joyn'd us. Yesterday arriv'd in the Camp 3 Battallions drawn out of Landau. His Electoral Highness has caus'd an Estimate to be made of the Number of Waggons and Carriages necessary for carrying the Baggage, Provisions and Ammunition in Case of a sudden March; to the end that if we have not already a sufficient Number, more may be provided in Time: From this 'tis suppos'd his Electoral Highness designs to march very speedily, tho' the rainy Weather continues; And 'tis said we shall move towards Fribourg, because our Pontons with all Materials for laying Bridges are already sent that Way, and that we shall pass the Rhine at Kappelle. A Spy has been seiz'd at Furthwangen in the Black Forrest, having about him 100 Letters for divers Persons in Bavaria, some of them in the Elector of Bavaria's own Hand.

Sold at the King in Little-Britain, price 1 s. 6 d.

Since the True Original so much fam'd Stropps for setting Razors, Penknives, Lancets, &c. to a most exquisite fine Edge, and polishing them to an extraordinary Brightness, have met with such success, it hath tempted others (for lucre sake) to imitate and publish 'em under the following Notions, viz. English, Parisian, London, Venetian, British, Britanick, and Jacob's Stropps; whereas the true ones are only sold for the Author at John's Coffee-house in Sweetings-Alley near the Royal Exchange, London, as hath been often advertis'd in the Gazette the 25th of May past, to undeceive People from further Impositions; price 1 s. each, with Directions neatly h'd to the back of each of 'em.

The Grand Cephalick or Head-Snuff, approved by the most eminent Physicians in London, to be the only sort capable of curing all the Distempers of the Head and Brain, and often prescribed by them as such in the most stubborn and dangerous Cases, as Apoplexies, Epilepsies, Lethargies, Vertigos, Megrim, Pains in the Head, Vapours, Imposthumes, loss of Memory, Deafness, Sore Eyes, &c. two Papers at most times making a perfect Cure, 'tis a peculiar Composition different from all other Snuffs, and different in its Operation and Effects, twice or thrice using it, doing infinitely more real good, than 50 times using any other sort, as will manifestly appear to all that shall try it, and may possibly retrieve Life in Apoplexies and other violent Distempers of the Head, when other sorts shall be only the Introducers of Ruin and Death, this being to be used Medicinally, as there is occasion, not immoderately and for fashion sake, as the Snuff-takers do their Spanish and other pernicious Snuffs in vogue; the dangerous Consequences of which Practice being at large observed in the printed Directions. 'Tis to be had only (by the Author's appointment) at Mr. Varenne's a Book-seller at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand. Price 1 s. 6 d. per Paper.

The first Angelick Tincture for Coughs, which began to be expos'd to Sale October 10. 1704. and for more than one whole Year escap'd unprejudiced by Counterfeits. It is a great and unparallel'd Medicine, having reliev'd many out of great danger, doing the Cure on the Spot, when a Thousand other things fail; when it is taken into the Mouth the Cough doth instantly cease, and after 2 Days return no more, the Truth whereof is sufficiently evinc'd by Examples of Cures in former Advertisements. N. B. This excellent Secret (now vastly improv'd) is no where to be had save at John's Coffee-house in Swithin's Alley by the Royal Exchange, and at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, where the Author may be known and spoke with at any time, that the Buyers may receive entire Satisfaction. Price 1 s. the Bottle.

The Famous Royal-Essence for the Hair of the Head, Perriwigs, &c. being the most delightfully charming Perfume in Nature, excellently beneficial to Health, and the best Preserver of Hair in the World, keeping that of Perriwigs in the Curl, and all Hair from fading or changing Colour; makes the Hair of the Head grow thick, strengthens and confirms its Roots, and infallibly keeps it from falling off, or splitting at the Ends. By its incomparable Perfume it strengthens the Brain, revives the Spirits, quickens the Memory, but never raises the Vapours in Ladies; it also scents Handkerchiefs excellently. Since it has been so exceedingly admir'd and valued by the Nobility and Gentry, it has been basely counterfeited, therefore take Notice that the true is to be had only at Mr. Allcraft's, a Toyshop, at the Blue-Coat-Boy, against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, at 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

An Infallible Electuary for the Rheumatism. Being the most wonderful Medicine in the World, for the Cure of that Distemper: For tho' the Person be brought by it into an extrem languishing condition, or is in the most torturing pain that can possibly be thought on, it gives instant ease, as if it were wrought by a Miracle, and not only perfectly cures a Fit in a few Doses taking, to admiration, but also so powerfully eradicates, or roots out the very principal Cause or Seeds of that Disease, that it will never return agen. It purifies the Blood and Juices, rectifies all disorders of the Fluids, and is so peculiarly adapted for the cure of the Rheumatism, (let it proceed from what cause soever) that there is not the like Medicine in the Universe. In short it absolutely accomplishes a Cure, tho' the Distemper be become Habitual, performing it so easily, safely, and soon, without any trouble, that one would be amaz'd at it. In almost innumerable Experiments it was never known to fail. Is sold only at Mr. Spomers, at the Golden half-Moon in Buckle-street, in Goodman's-Fields, near White-Chappel, at 3 s. a Pot, with Directions.

The famous Chymical Secret for the Tooth-ach, a drop or two of which infallibly and instantly takes away the sharpest pain, tho' so violent and raging, as almost to cause Distraction. In less than a minute gives ease to admiration, and not only takes the pain quite away (whether the Teeth be sound or rotten) but also certainly prevents its returning again. Price 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle (which contains enough to cure 20 People) with directions. Sold only at Mr. Bell's, a Book-seller, at the Cross-Keys and Bible in Cornhill near Stocks-Market, Where the most infallible Plaster for taking away Corns is Sold at 1 s. a Box, with Directions.

The nicest Spanish Blacking for Gentlemens Shoes, that ever was Invented or Used, it making them always look like New, never Daubs the Hands in putting on, or Soils the Stockings in wearing; neither has it the ordinary Glofs of German-Balls, or the intolerable noisome stink of Size, Oyl, &c. but of an agreeable Scent. It indeed makes the Shoes look extremely Neat, and mightily preserves the Leather: All that use it Admire it, and those that once try it, will never use any thing else: Sold for 1 s. 6 d. the Pot with Directions (which will last 3 or 4 Months) only at Mr. John Hannam's, a Toyshop, at the Golden-Cup, in St. Paul's Church-yard, in the Book-sellers Rovv.

LONDON Printed, and Sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.
